

Letter of compliance/ Choice of super fund form

For Super members previously with Christian Super

If you would like your super contributions paid to your Australian Ethical Super account, sign and date this form, and give it to your employer.

Submit your completed form to your employer.

Note for employers:

Choice of Fund legislation provides that this form can be used by an employee to nominate their chosen fund instead of the Standard Choice Form issued by the Australian Taxation Office. Further information for employers including how to make contributions and the Trustee's compliance letter are on page 2 of this form.

- You should not seek financial advice from your employer unless they are licensed to provide it.
- Your employer has two months after you return this form to them to action your request.

Employers - You can make Australian Ethical Super your default super fund

Australian Ethical Super is a MySuper authorised fund. This means, you can choose it as the fund your employees' super goes into, if they don't make a different choice. Choosing Australian Ethical is a great way to demonstrate your commitment to society and environmental issues. For more information about making Australian Ethical your default fund, visit australianethical.com.au/employers or by emailing enquiries@australianethical.com.au

Making contributions into Australian Ethical Super

Employers can make contributions in these 2 ways:

ONLINE, VIA OUR SECURE EMPLOYER WEBSITE

You can use our secure online access to: make contributions for employees; export files from your payroll system; search, view and edit employee details; view recent contributions and view and update your employer details.

To get started simply call us on 1800 021 227 and we will set up your online account.

SUPERANNUATION CLEARING HOUSE

Some payroll or accounting providers offer superannuation clearing house services. Also, the Australian Government Small Business Superannuation Clearing House is a free service open to small businesses with less than 20 employees. Small businesses can now register for the service online. Details on how to register can be found at medicareaustralia.gov.au/super or by calling Medicare Australia on 1300 660 048.
